

French II - Artist Bio (2025)

French II has carved out a unique space for himself, exploring every corner of the dance floor with an unmatched sense of curiosity and creativity. His sound is both cerebral and impactful, skillfully crafted to resonate with the energy of the crowd.

In September 2021, he earned a residency at Amsterdam's celebrated DJ bar, Radio Radio, and has since graced the stages of renowned festivals such as Dekmantel, Draaimolen, and Lowlands, seamlessly weaving together breaks, bass, and techno. His releases on labels like Unknown - Untitled, Nerve Collect, and Intercept further showcase his talent for blending intelligent sound design with undeniable dance floor impact.

True to his signature genre-defying approach, French II effortlessly explores his more introspective side. He embraces experimentation, allowing melancholic atmospheres and brooding basslines to take center stage, creating space for deeper emotional resonance within his music. With a soundscape that balances innovation and instinct, French II continues to push boundaries, captivating both listeners and dancers alike.
